

A romantic wedding scene featuring a bride and groom in a doorway. The bride is wearing a white gown and veil, and the groom is in a black tuxedo. They are embracing and looking at each other. The doorway is framed by two tall, arched arrangements of white roses and greenery. On either side of the arches, there are ornate, dark-colored wall sconces with multiple lit candles. The background wall is a warm, light beige color. The floor appears to be made of light-colored tiles.
